

Thames Valley District School Board Safe Schools presents:

Mike Neuts

A father's message to parents to prevent bullying

In 1998, ten year old Myles Neuts died after he was found hanging from a hook in a washroom stall at an elementary school in Chatham.

The tragedy sparked a long, painful process for the Neuts family, their school and their community.

Mike Neuts wants to affect change. He talks about bullying, standing up for each other, understanding differences and the need for empathy.

He has presented numerous times in TVDSB. Safe Schools and the Parent Outreach Subcommittee are pleased to offer an evening for parents and friends to hear his important message

Monday, February 25, 2008
7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Thames Valley District
School Board
1250 Dundas Street, London
Auditorium

Sponsored by: Safe Schools

Free to Everyone!

A Caring, Learning Community